Report of Trustee Board

Goldsboro, N. C., October 17, 1939

Brother Chief and brethren, We, the Trustees of the Assembly wish to submit the following report.

We have made a careful survey of the Goldsboro Christian Institute property and found the buildings in a deplorable condition. The roofs on both buildings are badly in need of repair to the extent that the occupants are forced to leave their sleeping quarters during heavy, or even light rainfalls. Their complaints have been numerous.

If we plan to continue to rent this property weshall be forced to make the buildings more accomodating in the way of protection from wind and weather.

We are suggesting also that in way of improvement and protection of the buildings that they be painted as well. The land is now being cleared, and is well drained. We have insured the property for $1,500.00. The insurance company was willing to insure both buildings to the amount of $2,700.00. Since we had no insurance at all on the property, we decided to take only $1,500.00 for the time being.

We have spent a good deal of money trying to patch up the buildings, but this in the long run will prove to be only a loss

Respectfully submitted—the Trustees
